

X. FINDINGS

Wood Rodgers' findings from the analyses described in this report are summarized below:

- 1. From a technical standpoint, the entire NVSSP area can be developed implementing the concept of interim storm drainage pumping, thus, the timing for transferring from interim to the Preferred Drainage Plan facilities will be dictated by financial feasibility.
- 2. Development can be phased with interim pumping, and meet the drainage and flood control objectives, policies, and standards of Sacramento County.